

Identity and Personality

What is an Identity:

A complete and self-contained ensemble of thoughts and prescriptions how to act on diverse inputs. The ensemble is capable of complete thought inference which is can generate a chain of thoughts as a result of a variety of stimuli.